

Name _____ Period _____

CSS Fluid Layout Rubric

You must completely fill this out and turn this in when your site is published and ready to be graded. Answer all questions on back page.

Requirement	Student (Check your work before posting your pages. Place a check mark next to each one you have done correctly)	Teacher (1 pt each if done correctly)
1. CSS body settings are correct
2. All divs are in the right place
3. Style.css was created
4. CSS #wrapper settings are correct
5. CSS #header settings are correct
6. CSS #left settings are correct
7. CSS #center settings are correct
8. CSS #right settings are correct
9. CSS #footer settings are correct
10. CSS #header h1 settings are correct
11. CSS Padding settings are correct
12. CSS h2 settings are correct
13. Left Navigation list code is correct
14. Navigation, Title and News headings display correctly
15. CSS #footer a settings are correct
16. Left navigation works correctly
17. Footer navigation works correctly
18. CSS #left ul settings are correct
19. CSS #left li settings are correct
20. CSS #left a settings are correct
21. CSS #left a:hover settings are correct
22. Navigation saved as library item
23. News saved as library item
24. All pages have content
25. All pages published correctly
Total

Comments:

1. What does it mean when a layout is liquid or fluid?
2. What did you have the most difficulty with?
3. What did you find easiest?
4. When creating CSS layouts what do you still need more practice with?
5. Is there something else you would have added to your page but you don't know how?