

Lesson 1 Lab 1

Creating a Simple Web Page

Download Data Files from Calendar:

Download Introduction_lab1.txt to your folder

Download logo.jpg to your graphics folder

Before You Begin:

Your Notepad be opened displaying a blank document,

Scenario:

Your client Everything for Coffee Ltd has asked you to create a website featuring the various products of their company. You plan to create a web page for each of the products. Your immediate plan is to create a home page with some introductory text, the company logo, and a customer service image.

- 1 Declare the doctype and namespace for your XHTML document. (4 Points)
- 2 Enter the head section of your document, including a title. (4 Points)
- 3 Enter the body section of your document. (4 Points)
- 4 Create a paragraph in the body section with a welcome note and an introduction by copying and pasting the text from the Introductionlab1.txt file you downloaded. (4 Points)
- 5 Save the file as indexlab1.html in your folder and view it in one or both browsers.
- 6 Insert the company logo at the top of your web page. (4 Points)
- 7 Insert comments for the footer section of the web page. (4 Points)
- 8 Save the file and view it in one or both browsers.
- 9 Put the file in your drop box

Name _____ Period _____

Lab 1 Rubric

Requirements	Points	Score
Doctype	4pts
Namespace	4pts
Head	4pts
Body	4pts
Text	4pts
Comments	4pts
Total	24pts	